Using the Catechist’s Manual

This Catechist’s Manual is part of the On the Journey series of books intended to be used for the Order of Christian Initiation. This Manual is designed to be a practical help to the catechist by offering a structured way of preparing for and presenting the catechetical portion of an RCIA session. Together with the companion Participant’s Book, this Manual should enable catechists to prepare thoroughly for each teaching and to present the faith both systematically and organically (see CT 21; GDC 67). In order to understand the structure of each lesson plan and its context within the catechumenal process, it is essential that each catechist read with care all of the introductory sections of this Manual.

The Purpose of Section Two

This section provides a summary of the structure of the RCIA process. This highly simplified explanation offers a basic context for the following sections, which then elaborate on the catechetical aspect in detail. The enclosed foldout RCIA Overview Chart (discussed below) is a useful companion to this section. The liturgical and pastoral aspects of the RCIA process receive much more significant treatment in other publications of the On the Journey series, particularly the RCIA Leader’s Manual.

The Purpose of Section Three

The RCIA ritual book directs that catechesis should shift in emphasis and, to some degree, in method as a participant goes through the process (see RCIA 4-7). This section explains, in practical terms, how those changes serve the process and help foster conversion. The lesson plans provided in this Manual are primarily written for the Catechumenate period, which is usually the longest and most densely catechetical. As the character of the catechesis in each of the other periods is described, this section should assist the catechist in adapting these lesson plans to suit teaching during other stages in the RCIA process.

The Purpose of Section Four

The lesson plans are designed according to a teaching structure suggested by Msgr. Francis D. Kelly in his book The Mystery We Proclaim: Catechesis for the Third Millennium (Our Sunday Visitor, 2nd edition, 1999) in chapter three of part five, as an “Ecclesial Approach to Catechetical Methodology.” This section explains the rationale behind that structure in the context of the distinctive demands of RCIA catechesis and the adult learning model.

The Purpose of Sections Five and Six

These sections are written with two goals in mind. The first purpose is to examine how to present the truths of the faith in an orderly and cohesive manner that fosters conversion and a deep hunger to know the God who reveals such wonders. Addressed here are two interrelated issues: how to teach the truths of the faith systematically, and how to teach them organically. Section Five treats the systematic question — ways to determine the order of RCIA teachings by using pastoral, liturgical, and catechetical means. Section Six treats the organic question — ways to teach the relationships among doctrines by using salvation history, the theological virtues, and the pillars of the Catechism of the Catholic Church.

The second purpose of these two sections is to address certain problems that are commonly found in catechesis today, especially in the Western world. Within the Catholic Church, there has developed the problem, or perhaps the crisis, of dissent. Exploring in detail the sources of what Pope Paul VI called the “leaven of infidelity to the Holy Spirit” (PCB 41) is beyond the scope of this Manual. However, the effort to not perpetuate the problem is very much relevant to this discussion of catechizing those entering the Catholic Church. In RCIA catechesis, attempts are often made to initiate adults into the faith without due consideration of the cultural context of dissent, in which their adherence to the truth will be constantly challenged. If the faith has not been taught in an authentically systematic and organic manner, their hold on the truth is endangered. Participants may develop a fragmented, emaciated, and unenthusiastic view of divine truth, wherein the outright rejection of certain revealed truths or passive lack of... formation of conscience becomes accepted as normal. The results of this kind of catechesis range from nominal adherence, lukewarmness, or cynicism, to outright absence from the visible fold soon after initiation. To counter this, this Manual suggests the necessary, demanding, and wholly wonderful challenge of being what Pope John Paul II calls a “true catechist” (CT 30), who can genuinely say, “For I delivered to you as of first importance what I also received” (1 Cor 15:5).

The Purpose of Section Seven

The sixty lesson plans that form the heart of this Manual are presented with three Tables of Contents for the sake of suggesting important considerations to the catechist. First, the lesson plans are listed in alphabetical order so as to give the catechist the freedom to determine the order of catechesis. Second, the lesson plans are listed by dividing them into the three theological virtues of faith, hope, and love. Third, the lesson plans are listed by dividing them into the four pillars of the Catechism of the Catholic Church. The rationale behind these divisions is discussed in Sections Five and Six.

Sixty lesson plans can carry a parish well beyond a twelve-month period, allowing flexibility in organizing a catechumenal process that can grow beyond the bounds of the “school-year model,” and more towards the ideal of a year-round process. However, many RCIA processes operate in a period of a year, or even less. Catechists in these situations will have to decide how best to combine two or more lessons, depending on their experience of what aspects of the faith need most attention in a given circumstance. In parishes with a year-round process, catechists may opt to teach some of the more content-rich lesson plans over the course of more than a single session. Appendix II provides examples of how some parishes have chosen to combine or expand certain lesson plans using the methods presented here.

The Purpose of the Appendices

The seven appendices are intended to make this Manual easier to use as a catechist prepares a teaching, and as the RCIA director decides what handouts to use from the companion Participant’s Book. Used carefully in tandem with the lesson plans, these appendices will add to the ability of musicians, catechists, and the rest of the team to stay unified on a theme in a manner that takes full advantage of the adult learning model and the appropriate use of liturgical catechesis.

The RCIA Overview Chart

The foldout Overview Chart enclosed with this Manual looks daunting at first, but the idea is to provide a picture of the whole process, from start to finish. Many parishes have found this chart valuable for training their RCIA teams. Across the top are the names of each of the periods of the RCIA process and the status of the participants, as well as terms used to identify them at any given stage. Notice that no timeframes are specified except for the period of Purification and Enlightenment, which normally coincides with Lent, and the Neophyte Year, from one Easter to the next. All of the references quoted in the chart are taken from the RCIA ritual book; as with all ecclesiastical documents, the numbering refers to paragraphs, not pages. Down the side, the journey of each possible type of participant is tracked (unbaptized in green, baptized uncatechized in red, and baptized catechized but not Catholic in blue), as well as the responsibilities of the Church in each period of the catechumenal process. The dark bars denote the major liturgical gateways of the process, and continue to use the color scheme, with the combining of red and blue to make purple in the case of baptized participants, since both of these categories of people can go through the same gateways. Each period is divided into the three aspects: liturgical, catechetical, and pastoral.

This has been done to make information in the guidelines of the ritual book more accessible and to undo some of the confusion that arises when using it. When reading through the remaining introductory sections of this Catechist’s Manual, the Overview Chart should be opened and examined to aid in grasping the larger context of the particular subject at hand.

As a final note to set the tone for the rest of this Manual, it is important to place this work in proper relation to its goal: conversion and discipleship to Jesus Christ. Authentic conversion and discipleship to Christ means learning “more and more within the Church to think like him, to judge like him, to act in conformity with his commandments, and to hope as he invites us to” (CT 20; see also the initiatory catechesis section of the GDC). Conversion is a gradual turning from the darkness of sin, and turning to a desire for holiness, which involves:
...being led into the mystery of God’s love, who invites [participants] to establish a personal relationship with him in Christ. Under the movement of divine grace the new convert sets out on a spiritual journey by means of which, while already sharing through faith in the mystery of death and resurrection, he passes from the old person to the new who has been made perfect in Christ (see Col 3:5-10; Eph 4:20-24). This transition, which involves a progressive change of outlook and morals, should be manifested in its social implications and effected gradually during the period of the catechumenate. Since the Lord in whom he believes is a sign of contradiction (see Lk 2:34; Mt 10:34-39) the convert often has to suffer misunderstanding and separation, but he also experiences those joys which are generously granted by God (AG 15).

The catechetical endeavor native to the catechumenal process serves a deeply personal end for the catechist — discovering at an intellectual level not simply how an individual learns the faith, but how a participant falls in love. The goal of catechumenal catechesis is far more than imparting that which must be believed — it seeks to prepare participants for a new union, an embrace. This embrace is human and divine, unifying the two as water into wine, inviting participants to thereby quench the deepest call of relationship that Jesus gives — “I thirst” (Jn 19:28).

The Universal Call to Holiness

PREPARATION — LITURGY OF THE WORD
If beginning with a hymn or song, see previous page for suggestions
First Reading: Eph 4:22-5:2
Response: Ps 24
Gospel: Mt 11:29-30

PROCLAMATION
Jesus has called us to the perfection of his Father, perfection in love. Holiness is the call of all the baptized. Our wholehearted response to God’s grace will fill us with joy surpassing human understanding.

EXPLANATION
Human nature and the nature of our call (see 1 Pt 1:6-9)
- Within each of us is a God-implanted desire for happiness that only he can fulfill
- Holiness is not optional; on earth, authentic happiness is achieved only through sanctity: the joy of holiness
- In Heaven, happiness is participation in Trinitarian love, joy beyond measure

The nature of holiness: forming ourselves into “other Christs” (see Rom 15:8-14)
- Jesus Christ, Son of God become Son of Mary for the salvation of all humankind, came among us as the visible image of his invisible Father
- Holiness is being like Christ, conforming ourselves to him as our model of holiness
- The more clearly our intellects grasp Jesus, the more powerful will be the action of our will (see Phil 1:9-11)
- The Holy Spirit is our source of strength to be like Christ; holiness manifests the Spirit’s fruits (see Gal 5:22-25)

The pursuit of holiness in this world (see Rom 12:2)
- The lifeblood of holiness is charity: the more we die to self and lay down our lives in love to others, and the more vigorously we work to sanctify the world, the more we attain holiness and the easier it becomes for others to become holy (see Col 3:9-17)
- We offer up life’s sufferings, which Jesus sanctified and made redemptive for ourselves and others
- God asks us to do only what he gives us sufficient grace to do (see 1 Cor 10:13)

The obstacles to our call
- Salvation is the responsibility of each person, but for good or ill, others influence our efforts and we influence theirs
- All Christians discover that the world is hostile to our efforts to attain holiness (see Jn 15:18-20)
- The flesh, that is, our own disordered desires make us prone to sin (see Rom 7:18-20)
- The Devil ceaselessly tempts us to pursue counterfeit pleasure and happiness (see 2 Thes 2:9-12)

The resources to answer God’s call (see Eph 1:5-23 and Eph 3:8-12)
- Mother Mary has been given to us as a model of holiness and our prime intercessor with her Son
- The Church gives us all that we need for salvation, including the truths God intends us to know, the graces of the sacraments, and the witness of holiness of the saints
- Frequent reception of Jesus in the Eucharist and of the sacrament of Reconciliation fill us with supernatural life and strengthen us against sin
- The Christian family is the school of holiness, the most basic unit of the Body of Christ
- The Christian fellowship of the faithful offers example, support, encouragement, and inspiration
- A relationship with God developed through prayer intensifies our yearning for him and desire to please him
- The heart of holiness is to will what God wills, for the sake of love

APPLICATION — SUGGESTED QUESTIONS FOR DISCUSSION
1. What is holiness? What is necessary to attain holiness? How does the Church help us to become holy?
2. Holiness is the wellspring of freedom, peace, and a deep inner joy. How is this contrary to the popular perception of holiness?
3. Why does our call to holiness also require us to ask God for mercy and forgiveness?
4. Holiness comes by way of the Cross. What does this mean in practice?
5. What ways would the world be worse without the Church?

CELEBRATION — SUGGESTIONS FOR CLOSING PRAYER
1. Pray for an ever-stronger desire for holiness in the world and to see God’s face forever.

PROCLAMATION
We believe because of the authority of God who reveals. Our response is a gift of his grace. We must remain steadfast in faith to see God.

EXPLANATION
The theological virtues: faith, hope, and love (charity) (see 1 Pt 1:5-9)
- These virtues orient us directly to God, who desires eternal fellowship with us
- By faith, we believe in God; by hope, we cling to God; by charity, we love God
- They are the basis for a life lived according to the Father’s plan
- They dispose us for eternal life with the Trinity and are thus necessary for salvation
- They are undeserved gifts from God, infused by God at Baptism
- They are the foundation of the moral life in Christ and give it its special character
- They are grown and developed in human hearts by our cooperation with the promptings of the Holy Spirit

Faith: the root of the supernatural life (see Eph 2:1-10)
- God offers the gift of faith to all; it is ours to accept or reject
- Faith is more certain than acquired human knowledge
- The object of our faith is the Deposit of Faith: we find the living Christ in the living Church
- Faith and reason are always in agreement, for God is the source of both
  - Reason prepares us for faith and helps us to see the reasonableness of faith
  - Faith is not a blind leap, but is based on knowledge of and trust in God’s authority
  - Faith does not oppose, but rather enlightens understanding
  - Faith yields and reveals truth, exposing reason to ultimate truth and stirring reason beyond its isolation to obtain truth, beauty, and goodness
- Faith is the basis and substance for our hope
- Faith is the only true foundation of charity

Ways to lose faith — always a deliberate choice (see Eph 6:10-18)
- Persistence in ignorance of God or his revelation, or indifference to him
- Misplaced priorities, such as a love of riches or power (see 1 Tm 6:9-10)
- Choosing to be influenced by the bad example of some believers
- Refusal to obediently submit to the Church’s teachings, leading to schism, heresy, and apostasy
- Revolting against God by deliberately doubting or rejecting him, and outright hostility to religion

Ways to obtain or increase faith (see 1 Tm 6:20)
- Ask the Holy Spirit for faith in prayer
- Participate devoutly and frequently in the sacraments, especially the Eucharist and Confession
- Read spiritual works, most especially Sacred Scripture, the Catechism, and lives of the saints
- Seek the companionship of true believers
- Exercise faith by professing it, declaring it, defending it, and doing good works (see Jas 2:14-36)

APPLICATION — SUGGESTED QUESTIONS FOR DISCUSSION
1. What is the virtue of faith? Why is faith not a blind leap, as many suppose?
2. Why doesn’t God just show himself directly and obviously to us so that we could more easily believe in him?
3. How is faith the beginning of human salvation? What do we mean by the response of faith?
4. How can the Deposit of Faith be a sure foundation for our personal faith?
5. How can suffering and trials test our faith?
6. If faith is a personal act, how can we say that a person does not believe alone?
7. Why does the modern culture often seem closed to the possibility of faith in God?

CELEBRATION — SUGGESTIONS FOR CLOSING PRAYER
1. Ask God for the desire to accept the gift of faith that he offers, and the grace to increase our faith daily.
2. Hymn or song (see previous page for suggestions)
